

Section 10

Filter

The applicator you ordered does not have a filter. However, to prevent clogging of modules or nozzles, Nordson Corporation recommends filtration of the adhesive being supplied to the modules. One method of filtration is to install inline filters at the hose-to-applicator connections. Contact your Nordson representative for information about inline filters or other filtration methods.